Your essay should be typed on its own page and submitted with the rest of the scholarship items. In at least 500 words but not exceeding 1000 words, compose an original essay discussing the following topic.

When you were younger, someone probably asked you the question, "What do you want to be when you grow up?". What was your response then? If they were to ask you the same question now, what would you say? Discuss the experiences or influences in your life that have shaped your aspirations today.
